Article 26

ARBITRATION CLAUSE

Any dispute arising between members or between the members and the Company, and concerning any available rights relating to the relationship with the Company, save any dispute for which the public prosecutor is mandatorily required, shall be settled by an arbitration panel consisting of three arbitrators, all of whom appointed by the Chair of the Bar Association of the place in which the Company has its registered office, within thirty days of the relevant request submitted by the party making the complaint. Should the Chair of the Bar Association fail to make such appointment within the required period of time, the party making the complaint shall submit the appointment request to the Chair of the Court of the place in which the Company has its registered office.

The arbitrators appointed in this way shall designate the Chair of the arbitration panel.

The arbitration panel shall be domiciled at the Chair's domicile.

The arbitration panel shall make a decision within ninety days of its appointment. The arbitration panel shall decide in an equitable way and issue an award enforceable as a contract (arbitrato irrituale).

It is hereby irrevocably agreed that the resolutions and decisions of the arbitration panel shall be binding on the parties.

The arbitration panel shall determine how to allocate the arbitration expenses among the parties.

The above-mentioned regulation shall also apply to any disputes initiated by or against any directors, liquidators and statutory auditors or independent auditors concerning any available rights relating to their relationship with the Company. For anything not provided for herein, the provisions of law shall apply.

The removal of this arbitration clause needs to be approved by a members' resolution voted by a majority representing at least two thirds of the Company's capital. The absent or dissenting members may, within the subsequent ninety days, exercise the right of withdrawal pursuant to Article 8 above.

Any amendments to the contents of this arbitration clause need to be approved by a members' resolution by the majority required to amend the Articles of Association.
